NOTES—First sheet

Prays for a speedy disposal of the case.

The petitioner states that he has already produced as required by Court a copy of the deed of adoption, that Aganik Kumaraswamy Deekshith in collusion with his enemies has since managed to get a will to the prejudice of the minor, from Vankamma (since deceased) widow of Krishna Bhatta making over the latter's landed properties for Kalyanotsava at Tirumakodur and has unauthoritatively taken possession of these properties without Court authority, and that the question being one of a civil nature, he will institute the necessary proceedings in courts. He complains that the Taluk authorities have been unnecessarily delaying the submission of papers and that his several petitions to the District authorities has no effect. He therefore prays for an early disposal of the case and also for the restoration of the properties of the deceased Krishnabhatta to his minor son pending the disposal of the case by Court.

Submitted for orders. The disposal of
